

Congratulations to the Associate Professor of the Department of Standardization and Certification with the title of "The Best Teacher of the University of 2017" !!!

«Жоғары оқу орнының үздік оқытушысы»

«Лучший преподаватель вуза»

According to the results of the last competition for the awarding of the title "The best teacher of the university", conducted by the Ministry of Education and Science of the Republic of Kazakhstan, the associate professor of the "Standardization and Certification" department Abseitov Erbolat Tleuseitovich became one of the 14 winners of the Eurasian National University named after. L.N. Gumilev

The activity of teachers was evaluated according to the actualized qualitative and quantitative indicators of the evaluation of the applicants' work: development, publication of teaching aids, monographs, teaching aids in English; availability of a certificate of successful completion of the course on the basis of a platform of mass open online courses in a foreign language for professional activities, etc.

The competition "The best teacher of the university" encourages and supports the further professional growth of university teachers. Substantial moral and material encouragement will contribute to the improvement of scientific and pedagogical qualifications. The winners of the competition can use their grant for research, internships abroad, publishing books.

The Department of "Standardization and Certification" expresses its sincere congratulations to the Associate Professor Abseitov Yerbolat Tleuseitovich and wishes further successes!!!

