On December 12, a solemn event dedicated to the Independence Day of the Republic of Kazakhstan was held at the Eurasian National University.

Speaking with congratulations the rector of the ENU named after LN Gumilyov, Academician of the National Academy of Sciences of Kazakhstan Erlan Sydykov noted that the importance of independence is strengthening day by day, that we reached 26 years ago:

- The people of Kazakhstan, which passed the test of time, worked hard all the years of independence. Now, in a new stage of development, we will bring more quality and responsibility through the modernization of public consciousness.

Our university, founded by the head of state, is the fruit of independence. New, modern educational buildings, technologies needed in the scientific and educational process, modern student homes - is it possible that all this was without independence? Today we opened a student house number 7. We also consider it as a model of architectural and design art among all buildings built during the years of independence, "the scientist said.

At the end of his speech, Erlan Battashevich congratulated ENU scientists. L.N. Gumilev, who received well-deserved awards on the eve of Independence Day of the Republic of Kazakhstan.
