

Guest lecture for students and undergraduates of the specialty "Standardization and certification»

Guest lecture of the head of the Center for business transformation of JSC "KEGOC" Dzhanbaulieva S. S. was held in the autumn semester with students gr. System 42 and System 44 on "The Process approach: the experience of optimization of business processes in JSC "KEGOC".

Before the students spoke the head of group of Center of business transformation of JSC "KEGOC" S. S. Dzhanbaulieva. In the lecture, our guest talked about the company's mission of "KEGOC" JSC, gave a description of the activities of the company. Particular attention was paid to the optimization of business processes in order to improve the efficiency of the company using Smart Grid, Power Storage technologies.

The meeting with representatives of various spheres of economy allows students to better understand the specifics of production processes, and the educational process to make practice-oriented.